

SETTING YOUR PET RABBIT LOOSE DOESN'T MAKE HER “FREE”.

IT MAKES HER “FOOD”.

Domestic rabbits lack the survival instincts wild rabbits use to fend for themselves. They become food for everything from cats , dogs, to even crows. And the “lucky” ones who don’t get eaten get run over by cars or die from heat or disease. Please, before getting a bunny - or abandoning one - contact the local SPCA or House Rabbit Society.
